

LG ARENA

Choose your battle cry, pledge your allegiance and prepare for a fight to the death! The LG Arena plays host to our participation gaming this year, and our stores and clubs have pulled out all the stops to make sure these battles are ones to be remembered. This is also the place to play your Bring and Battle games this year, so find yourself an opponent and ready your troops...

The Sales Stands are located right by the action, making it even easier for you to grab whatever inspires you on the gaming tables. As ever the guys from Forge World will be in attendance with an entire articulated lorry filled with their range of resin miniatures, vehicles and more. The Forge World Studio team will also be on hand to answer your questions.

At the Black Library stand, all the latest titles will be on sale and you'll be able to meet your favourite authors and cover artists in the signing area.

Games Day wouldn't be complete without the Hobby Zones. Whether you want to build scenery, construct a mad-cap conversion in the hope of winning the Scrap Demon trophy, or simply assemble your new miniatures, these are the places to do it.

PAVILION

The Pavilion is the creative hub of Games Day; where artists, painters, sculptors and designers come together to deliver a truly awe-inspiring show.

Golden Demon is first on many a person's must-see list, and it's not difficult to see why. Rarely will you be able to experience such an array of exquisitely painted miniatures up close and personal, and whether you are taking part yourself, or are merely here to admire, year on year this competition does not disappoint.

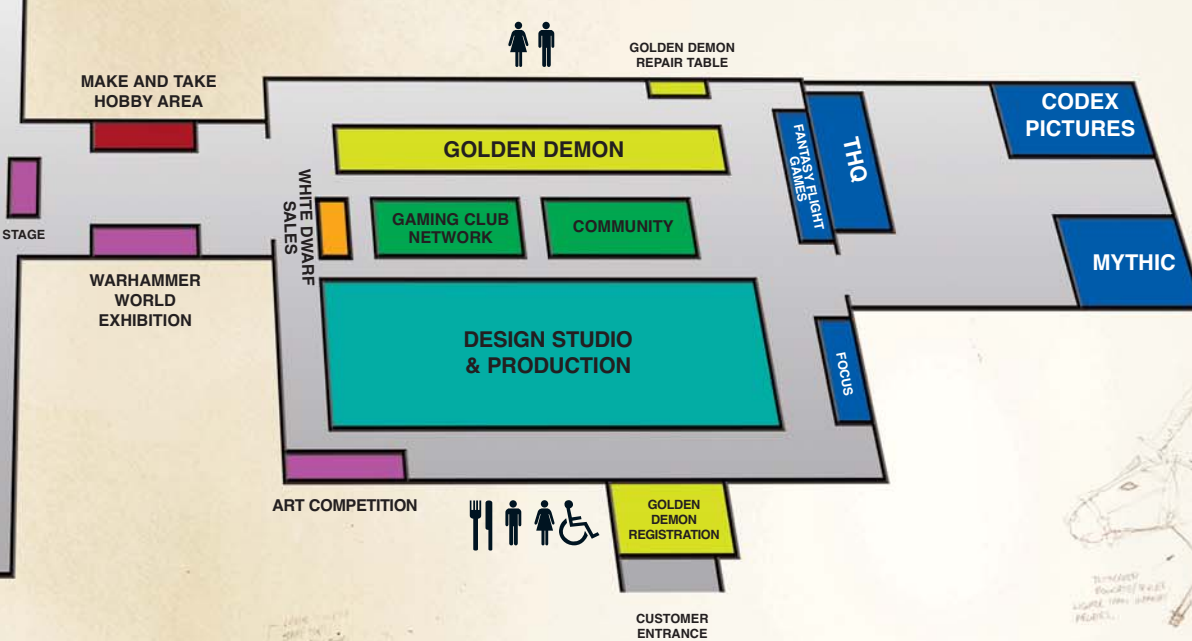

Also raising the bar from one Games Day to the next is the Art Competition. With the theme for this year "Psykers and Sorcerers" there are sure to be some particularly interesting pieces on show.

You'll also be able to see many of the original works of art created by artists of Games Workshop in the Warhammer World exhibition. The Chaos Touring Exhibition features original pieces of art, concept sketches, production 'greens' and classic miniatures and many of John Blanche's own seminal works.

It takes a whole team of talented individuals to produce our books, magazines and miniatures, and Games Day is your opportunity to meet these clever guys and gals face to face. So, if you've ever wanted to quiz an 'Eavy Metal painter on blending techniques, or ask one of our Games Developers in-depth questions about your favourite army, then the Design Studio area is the place for you.

Returning for another year in the Pavilion are our licensed partners. If computer games are your passion then prepare to be dazzled, as the teams behind Warhammer Online, Dawn of War, and the Blood Bowl computer game will all be in attendance. For the latest in card and board games then head for the Fantasy Flight Games stand and, for the first time, we are very pleased to announce that Codex Pictures will be on hand to tantalise you with sneak peeks from the forthcoming Ultramarines movie.

And if all that has left you feeling full to bursting with hobby enthusiasm, then why not stop by for a chat with the Community and GCN guys, to find out how to get involved in your very own wargaming club?
